

XI. GIMNAZIJA (E10100802 - HR)

XI.gimnazija in Zagreb, Croatia (11th Grammar School) is a successor of Teacher's School and it has been a grammar school since 1961. The school implements a general-education grammar secondary high school programme. There are around 465 students and 32 teachers in the school. Mandatory subjects are Croatian, English, German or Italian, Latin Language, Music Education, Visual Arts Education, Psychology, Logic, Philosophy, Sociology, History, Geography, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Computer Science, Politics and Economics, Physical Education and Religious Education or Ethics. Students also choose one subject every year as their optional subject and they have one more lesson per week in that subject. Our students excell at the school leaving exams and in STEM subjects.